Hon. Frank Clark, the Duval county candidate for congress, opened his campaign Monday night in DeLand. Mr. Clark is said to feel sure of success in his contest with Hon. Robert W Davis. The friends of Mr. Davis are, of course, just as sure that Mr. Clark is doomed to defeat.

published in a recent issue of the Palatka Advertiser it is apparent that the opposition to Mr. Sheats reach without being redged about will have the sympathy and cooperation of what few people there are in the state holding the belief that our social system should be upset and a system of such changes as seem expedient in equality between the races set up any election year they desire, and in its stead. The opposition will constitutional limitation might b be rather too heavy laden to consummate its plans for the defeat retain a particularly meritorious of of Mr. Sheats.

It would be really to bad for the TELEGRAPH to be forced to relate at this 'ate day the incidents that underlie t e opposition of a certain scribbler in this county to the re-nomination of Superintendent Sheats. But if it must be told we have the notes at hand. A teachereditor; his lecture to a class of examinees on the evils of "peeping" during the course of examinations; his own fall when a hard wo d stared him in the face, and an expose of his shady methods as a moralist by Superintendent Sheats cut a figure in the little story that might be written.

PARTY USAGES AT FAULT.

Under the caption "Changes in Policy" we reproduce to-day from the esteemed Pensacola News an article in support of its contention that the tenure of incumbents of the state offices should be re stricted by constitutional provision

As will be seen by the article in question our contemporary supports its contention for a change in the constitution with denuncia. tion of the methods that have obtained in our nominating conven-

Changes in Policy.

From the Pensacola News.

"The Pensacola News appears lately to be after 'anything for a change.' It has recently suggested that the constitutional limitation giving the incumbents of the office of governor a single term only be extended to all other state offices. and, we believe, it intimated that From a communication penned the extension might profitably go by a former carpet-bagger and on down the line to the county of fices. This strikes us as a farfetched way of arriving at a conc usion that the public can always or trammeled by iron-clad constitutional law. The nomination and election of officers, under our pres ent system, is entirely in the hands of the people. They can make exceedingly embarrassing at timwhen there was a general desire to ficer. Let's not have 'too much constitution." - Starke TELE-

By urging the adop tion of a policy that operated so satisfactorily in the matter of the governorship, the News simply seeks, as it should, the greatest good to the greatest number.
